NEWS LETTER 2014-2015

EDITORIAL

I am extremely happy to pen the editorial for the annual news letter that symbolizes the dynamism of our budding social workers. Being as the educationalists, imparting education alone to the students community is not only our duty. Along with education, they have to be supported with values and morals having foresight on their future. Every year our social work aspirants have been toiling hard to do justice to their profession by carrying out as many meaningful societal endeavors as possible.

The varied programmes organized during the academic year covered as void spectrum of social issues of concern. International conference, group project and community organization programmes ensured that our mission of reaching the unreached is accomplished.

Being the editor for this year news letter, I feel proud had an opportunity to work with team of dedicated faculty members and dynamic students which made my work much more easier. I thank our beloved principal Dr. Sr. Victoria, for the opportunity given and for her support in all our initiatives. I wish the news letter all success.
