

PG & RESEARCH DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

THRUST AREAS

- Childrens' Literature

It deals with the trends, themes, concepts which would be fascinated by children. It includes different varieties of myth and magical aspects which would be liked by children. This literature also teach moral values to children.

- Post Colonial Literature

It represents the tendencies, premises, notions in the post independant era. It typically reflects the society, customs and moral aspects of the people. It also reflects the existing aspects along with the antique aspects of the country.

- Diasporic Literature

This literature expressed about the thwarted feelings of the people who have been detached from their home land and living elsewhere. It clearly expressed ideas of the inner feelings of the people who missed their native values.

- Women Studies

This literature deals with the writings of the women of all literature. This literature offer independence to women in expressing their inner thoughts and ideas. The literature also reflects the sufferings of the women community and also about the emancipation of women.

- Literary Devices

Literature is the reflection of human life. Literature is constructed with various devices which would strengthen the structure of the language and literature. The literary devices would further increase the quality of any writings.

- Dalit Literature

This literature reflects the struggles faced by the low community people. It also expressed about the way of emancipation of the socially backward people.

- Gothic Literature

This literature reflects the thrilled and hidden aspects with many hysterical consepts. It includes the myths and the superstition aspects being observed and believed by the people.

- Linguistic studies

It deal with the organs of speech and speech sounds of a language. It also reflects the structure and design of a language with syntax and semantics.

- Eco Criticism

It is the combination of nature and literature. It expressed about the role of man in nature and how the human community is exploiting nature in which the nature in tern destructs the mankind.

- Post Modern Literature

It deals with the literary writings of the countries which were enjoying the previleges after their freedom. It includes the struggles faced by the people in the pre independant era and the development of the nation in respect of their independence.